Wild Love

Kellie's newest studio album, Wild Love, released April 20, 2017. Her new record offers 12 fresh songs that blend powerful, energetic pop with heart-engaging lyrics.

Wild Love is produced by Michael Rossback, features musicians Steve Gould (Sara Bareilles), John Arndt (The Brilliance) and Aaron Fabbrini (Sara Groves).

Kellie Haddock Bio

Kellie is a singer, songwriter, wife and mom. A former widow, Kellie has lived through tragedy and found hope and joy on the other side. Her music draws from real-life stories of beauty, heartache, hope and the celebration of life.

The Thank You Project, a short film featuring Kellie's story of gratitude after tragedy, has attracted more than 100 million views and has been featured on The TODAY Show, The Huffington Post, and Cosmopolitan among other national and international media outlets.

Kellie has performed in Iraq, China and across the U.S., offering music that engages the soul in all of its beauty and vulnerability. In support of her new record, she is now booking her Wild Love & Mending Hearts Tour. In every city where she plays on the tour, she'll also perform in a local hospital.

With this album and tour, Kellie hopes to use her music as a reminder that no matter what life brings, love will have the last word.
