Dance Among the Flowers

(c) Kellie Haddock 2022
ASCAP 916459116 | CCLI 7197559

I've been reaching for the sky
Trying to find the other side
Pushing my way through this dirt
Moving through this hurt

I refuse to get stuck
I never did believe in luck
Gonna make it through this day
Wearing grace like a cape

Oh I will bloom again
My labor's not in vain

I am growing through all I'm going through
I will dance among the flowers
I am growing through all I'm going through
This will be my finest hour
Everything's coming up roses
I will bloom again

It weighed me down with a burden
I was weary from the hurting
Oh but this I know for certain
It's not time to draw the curtain

Oh I will bloom again
My labor's not in vain

I am growing through all I'm going through
I will dance among the flowers
I am growing through all I'm going through
This will be my finest hour
Everything's coming up roses
And I will bloom again
I will bloom again

Oh....
Oh....

I am growing through all I'm going through
I will dance among the flowers
I am growing through all I'm going through
This will be my finest hour
Everything's coming up roses
And I will bloom again
I will bloom again
I will bloom again
